Land of Opportunity
$13. Then $525
200 Replace 2,000
One American Plant

BY ARTHUR BRISBANE
MILWAUKEE, May 18.—America is the country of opportunity, and Milwaukee is one of the best American cities. All over America are opportunities visible to the majority, when they are late to seize them. What opportunity knows is not so valuable.

For instance, consider the baby carriage business that C. J. Smith carried on in Milwaukee up to 1887. Twenty thousand dollars would have been paid for the carriage he made. In 1884 the A. O. Smith Corporation was founded and L. R. Smith, grandson of C. J., took charge. His father put $25,000 and others put $35,000 more into the corporation.

L. R. SMITH did new things, making frames for automobiles, keeping up with the times, and ahead of them. Time passed, and in 1923 J. E. Thompson advised this writer and other friends that the A. O. Smith Corporation was a very able man, with great ideas, a running thing.

THE stock sold then at $13 a share. A little later it sold at $525 a share, and five shares were given for one.

THE baby carriage business that you could have bought in 1887 for $50,000 in 1923 for $1,300,000, now sells on the stock exchange at $40,000,000.

SPEND an hour in that Milwaukee plant on the edge of Lake Michigan, study the head of the business and its methods, and you will know why this is a prosperous country. The latest American manufacturers could learn about mass production and how to make it from the A. O. Smith plant.

ONE of the mills, making 35,000 automobile frames a week for Chevrolet, uses marvelous automatic machinery that does with 200 men work what requires 2,000 men in other plants.

Automatic machine, changing steel sheets into steel frames, in 250 seconds. In one place machinery and 21 men handle 14,000 steel bars and 20,000 cross bars and drive 1,000,000 tons per day.

MACHINES do the work; men look on. From the floor below heavy rollers are blown up through thin pipes by air power, placed in the frames and fixed there, no hand touching anything.

A certain spots the men, with literally nothing to do but look on, find it hard to stay awake, and it has usually been suggested that a mechanism be arranged to shake the floor on which they stand at intervals to rouse them.

L. R. SMITH makes pipes up to 26 inches in diameter, without heating, an achievement hitherto unknown. The cold steel sheets, 30 feet long, are rolled into pipes and welded. And the weld is proved by tests, is stronger than the unwelded metal.

One order under way calls for 400 miles of pipe.

AND disinterested experts say that $2,000,000 worth of this new pipe-making machinery has made junk of $10,000,000 worth of plants that would have been called the last word in efficiency five years ago.

HUGE stills for "cracking" gasoline are also made by the welding process in that A. O. Smith plant. Manufacturers will know what that means in manufacturing economy.

These are the days of wealth created by efficiency. Where Mr. Smith has 200 men doing the work of 2,000, and doing it easily, the risk of injury is reduced so that it stands as one to forty under old methods.

AMERICANS have decided to keep out immigration. Intelligence says: "I'll show you how to get along without men."

You look at a machine 250 feet long, handling and producing 35,000 automobile frames a week, built with absolute perfection. Huge steel hands pick up the steel beams, turn them over, clip the edges, insert and fasten rivets.

YOU wonder that marvelously efficient, long-lasting automobiles can be sold at present prices, but remember, for one item that painting an automobile frame, taking it so that it comes out with a beautiful coat of brilliant black enamel, costs, for human labor, one and a half cents. And the labor is highly paid, if any pay can be called high, for labor producing such results.

WATCH OREGON AS REAL TEST ON AL SMITH

Religious Angle Draws Interest of Both Democrats and Republicans

REED OPPOSES GOVERNOR
Klan Rose to Influence in State While Parochial School Law Held There

BY GEORGE R. HOLMES
Star Staff Correspondent
Washington, May 18.—The rival presidential candidacies of Gov. Al Smith and Senator James A. Reed clash head-on in Oregon today, and leaders of both parties in Washington are watching the outcome with an intensity of interest wholly out of proportion to the small number of delegates involved.

Ten votes at the Houston convention won't make or break either Smith or Reed. What party leaders consider important about the Oregon primary today is that it is expected to throw some light on the much-debated question of Gov. Smith's religion as a political factor to be considered.

Oregon is a dry state. It is also one of those states wherein the Klan rose to a position of powerful influence. And it was in Oregon that the legislature enacted the famous parochial school law, which directed that all children be sent to public schools as distinguished from sectarian and religious schools.

One Real Test
Therefore, the party leaders here reason that if there is any state where Governor Smith's being a Catholic might militate against him politically it will be in Oregon. Less than 10 per cent of the state is Catholic, and that the religious issue has burned brightly in the state was exemplified by the rise of the Klan and the enactment of the school law.

Governor Smith has never been in the state. Senator Reed has campaigned there, and is said to have a considerable personal following there. Some of the Democratic leaders here anticipate a close battle.

Incidentally, the Oregon primary furnishes the first clearest test of Smith against Reed. In California, there was a three-cornered fight between Smith, Reed and Senator Walsh of Montana. Smith polled more votes than Reed and Walsh combined in California, and Walsh was so decisively defeated that he subsequently withdrew from the race.

Eight Women on Jury in Trial Today Establishes New Court Record Here

Largest Number Ever Seated in Marion County Courthouse Attaches State; Case Being Heard Regarded as One of Most Unusual Ever Tried Here

Eight women were seated on the jury in Common Pleas Court today to hear the case of William H. Harhoff, against the Industrial Commission of Ohio. Lawyers and officials in the courthouse stated that this is the largest number of women ever impaneled on a petit jury in Marion County.

Two other women were released from duty before the jury was seated. The case before the court was said to be one of the most peculiar and involved cases on record here. It originated with injuries suffered by Samuel Harhoff in 1914 while an employee of the Marion Steam Shovel Co.

Points in Dispute
The plaintiff contends that the injury resulted in Mr. Harhoff becoming afflicted with epilepsy. Following awarding of compensation for the injury the Industrial Commission declared that Mr. Harhoff was fully recovered. Later he was sent to a hospital for epilepsy, where he died last fall. The administrative is suing for additional compensation.

The Industrial Commission contends that Mr. Harhoff was afflicted with epilepsy before his injury. The commission is represented in the hearing by R. R. Zurembly, assistant attorney general, and Frank Wiedemann, county prosecuting attorney. J. W. Jacoby represents Mrs. Harhoff.

HARPER REFUSES TO ENTER STATE RACE

"Too Busy" To Consider Suggestion; Henderson Remains Undecided

Columbus, May 18.—Welfare Director John E. Harper today declared that he was "too busy with the duties of my present office" to give any consideration to the suggestion of friends that he become a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor.

Adm. Gen. Frank Henderson, another member of Gov. If Harper and Henderson enter the gubernatorial contest, there will be four members of the governor's cabinet in the race for the nomination to succeed Donahay. Former Lieut. Gov. Earl D. Bloom, now director of commerce, and Herman S. Witter, director of industrial relations, are avowed candidates for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

BOMBS DESTROY RESIDENCE OF EXECUTIONER

Robert Elliott, Who Pulled Switch on Sacco, Vanzetti, Miraculously Escapes

SEEN AS REPRISAL
Force of Concussions Felt Throughout Richmond Hill, Queens, Neighborhood

New York, May 18.—Two time bombs which exploded with terrific detonations within a few seconds of each other shortly before 2 a. m. today practically demolished the Richmond Hill home of Robert Elliott, the executioner who pulled the switch which sent Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti to eternity. Elliott, his wife and two children and a guest miraculously escaped injury.

Police had only one vague clue to aid their investigation of the bombing. A red automobile was seen speeding from the scene shortly after the explosion.

The force of the concussions was felt throughout the neighborhood of the Elliott home on Richmond Hill, Queens. Windows were broken.

One of the bombs was placed on the front porch of the two-story stone residence. The second was placed on the rear porch. The bomb in front of the house exploded first.

None Injured
Elliott, his wife, Della, their daughter, Gertrude, 17, their son, Robert, 27, and a cousin, Thomas Lang, 26, were in bed at the time. None was injured.

Elliott is the official executioner of New York State. He also officiates in that capacity in Massachusetts and Pennsylvania. When Sacco and Vanzetti were condemned to die Aug. 23, 1927, Elliott was selected as an executioner.

Before and after the execution, Elliott received anonymous letters threatening him with dire punishment for turning to Page 5

DONAHAYS ARE BACK AFTER SOUTHERN TRIP

Tour Taken in Auto To Benefit Health of Governor's Wife

Columbus, May 18.—Improved physically and refreshed mentally by their 16-day trip through the southland, Gov. Vile Donahay, his wife and their son, James, were resting today at the executive mansion here. The governor, it was stated, expects to spend tomorrow and Monday at his summer cottage on Indian Lake and return to his desk in the Statehouse Monday.

Leaving here by auto on May 2, with their son, James, as driver, Governor and Mrs. Donahay drove to Miami, Fla., via the Atlantic coast, and then to New Orleans, following Florida's west coast. On the way home they visited points of interest in Alabama and Tennessee.

The primary purpose of the trip, was to benefit the health of Mrs. Donahay, who, with her daughter, Mrs. James Huffman, Columbus, was injured in an auto accident a few weeks ago.

Jacob Meckstroth, the governor's secretary, was authority for the statement that Donahay, during the trip, discussed politics but once—and then with a reporter. The governor talked to no politician, it was said.

THREAT LETTER FROM SANDINO IS REVEALED

Death to All North Americans in Nicaragua Is Promised

GOES TO MINE MANAGER
Assails Coolidge Administration for Intervention in His Country

Puerto Cabezas, Nicaragua, May 18.—Following close upon news of a battle between United States Marines and guerrillas north of Matagalpa in which one marine was killed, Harry Amphlett, manager of the American owned La Luz and Los Angeles mine, announced the receipt of a letter from the rebels threatening death to all United States citizens residing in Nicaragua.

The letter was signed "Sandino," the leader of the revolutionary army. Amphlett, who is on his way to New York, made a trip to the La Luz district where he found that the rebels after their first raid, had returned to the mine colony and destroyed all the buildings except two. Amphlett also found a letter from the outlaw chief which said, in part:

"I have the honor to inform you that on this day your mining property was reduced to ashes. This is in accordance with my command and it represents a tangible protest against the warlike invasion your government has made in our territory without more fight than that of brute force."

"In case the government of the United States does not order the withdrawal of the pirates from our territory there will be no guarantee in this country for the North Americans residing in Nicaragua. At the beginning I believed that the people of North America were not in agreement with the abuse committed against Nicaragua by the government of Calvin Coolidge but I am now convinced that the people of North America applaud the intervention of the Coolidge government in our country."

It is for this reason that all North Americans who fall into our hands will have reached their end.

THIRTEEN IS UNLUCKY TO SPELLERS

"Indolence" First Tricky Word; 12 Others; Stakes Girl Wins

THIRTEEN proved an unlucky number for all except one of Central Junior High School's eighth grade students participating in the annual "spell-down" at Central this morning. The lucky one was Grace Marie Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Baker, 375 Mountview, who carried off honors.

That 13 is unlucky was proved in the fact that the 17 defeated contestants eliminated, in all, just 13 words, beginning, and to relate, with the suggestive word "indolence." The second word mis-spelled balanced the program, however, since it was "adhere." The others mis-spelled were "occasion, aquid, equaler, exercise, parallel, adjacent, occurrence, irremissible, peninsula, consultation and guide-boys."

The other spellers, all from the eighth grade, were Krone Backler, who was second place; Donald Lindsey, awarded third place; and Jeannette Brunner, fourth place; and Robert Swisher, Earl Brown, Grace Kinchall, William Kopen, Conrad Clark, Ada Ruth Clappert, Thomas Kopen, Dorothy Kopen, Jack Clark, Ralph Kopen, Katherine Kopen, Fred Kopen, Charles Kopen, and Stanley Kopen.

UTOPIA HIS DREAM
Colony Proved Failure and Communist Resigned Leadership in 1923

London, May 18.—William D. ("Big Bill") Haywood, former Chicago leader of the Industrial Workers of the World, is dead at Moscow, according to word received here this afternoon. A Moscow dispatch to International News Service a fortnight ago said that Haywood was in the Kremlin Hospital in critical condition from diabetes and heart weakness. The dispatch added that the former American communist was believed to be dying. Haywood was 66 years old.

Haywood went to Russia eight years ago to avoid going to jail in the United States. He had been indicted for establishing a colony in Siberia and turning it into a modern Utopia. It was his plan to establish a "Soviet within a Soviet" for Americans who believed in the communist ideal. According to the Russian autonomous industrial colony was formed with Haywood as the leader.

FORMER I. W. W. LEADER IN U. S. DIES IN RUSSIA

Jumped Bail in Chicago Eight Years Ago To Escape Prison Term

UTOPIA HIS DREAM
Colony Proved Failure and Communist Resigned Leadership in 1923

London, May 18.—William D. ("Big Bill") Haywood, former Chicago leader of the Industrial Workers of the World, is dead at Moscow, according to word received here this afternoon. A Moscow dispatch to International News Service a fortnight ago said that Haywood was in the Kremlin Hospital in critical condition from diabetes and heart weakness. The dispatch added that the former American communist was believed to be dying. Haywood was 66 years old.

Haywood went to Russia eight years ago to avoid going to jail in the United States. He had been indicted for establishing a colony in Siberia and turning it into a modern Utopia. It was his plan to establish a "Soviet within a Soviet" for Americans who believed in the communist ideal. According to the Russian autonomous industrial colony was formed with Haywood as the leader.

But "Big Bill" had failed to count upon the failure of his venture. The enterprise proved a failure because the colonists refused to become "Utopians." They were just plain businessmen with a deep-seated desire for money and the good things of life that money will buy. At a meeting of the colonists on Jan. 2, 1923, Haywood resigned the leadership. He broke down and wept as he told of the collapse of his life's ideal.

Later the Soviet government undertook to carry out Haywood's plan and contributed $1,000,000 to that end, but the colony still failed to meet the dreams of its founder. John C. Brown, a Dutch engineer, who selected as chief director to fill Haywood's place, criticized for jumping Bill.

Haywood was criticized in Soviet Russia as well as in the United States for "jumping" his bail in Chicago when he came to Europe. In one dramatic speech, replying to his critics, Haywood cried:

"What could I do? Could I go to jail at my age? I would die in jail. I could not do that. I did the only thing my conscience and my intelligence dictated."

In 1923 Haywood's fortunes were very low. He was without money and without a job. His health began to fail. He was aided by the Soviet government for his work in the United States in behalf of communism.

Haywood was born in Salt Lake City, the son of a poor miner, and was the founder of the Industrial Workers of the World, a Socialist labor organization embracing the principle of communism.

Haywood's Russian wife was at the bedside, but was unable to speak to him owing to her ignorance of the English language. Haywood had been fighting for weeks and his reserve strength was a source of wonder to the physicians.

Twenty years ago he was indicted in the case of the Communist Party, the son of a poor miner, and was charged with a conspiracy to kidnap and murder a prominent New York lawyer. He was released from the time on $5,000 bail.

Haywood was a prominent figure in the labor movement. He was a leader of the Industrial Workers of the World, a Socialist labor organization embracing the principle of communism.

ETERNAL TRIANGLE

Costs One Life, Puts Another in Jail on Death Charge

Washington, May 18—The eternal triangle cost another life today. Charles Fitzhugh Payne, 50, an auditor for the Federal Trade commission, is dead, and William Kellogg, 34, a lawyer, is held in jail on the charge of causing his death.

The two men fought with their fists yesterday afternoon in an apartment house in which Kellogg's estranged wife lived. Payne lived in the same apartment house. Kellogg accused the auditor of being "a home wrecker." The scuffle started in an upper hallway. They fought down the stairs into the ground floor lobby before Kellogg finally knocked the elder man down.

Payne, unconscious, was carried into Mrs. Kellogg's apartment and died a few minutes later.

The Kelloggs, separated about two months, have two children. Payne was unmarried.

Suffered Severe Stomach Trouble After Each Meal

Konjola Produced Amazing Change Over Entire System, Says Dayton Lady

MRS. AUDREY DAVIS
"I suffered many health troubles, especially from my stomach and Konjola completely ended my misery so that I am in the best of health," said Mrs. Audrey Davis, 917 East Herman street, Dayton, Ohio.

"Everything I ate caused me to bloat up with gas and become very dizzy. A heavy lump seemed to form in my stomach after meals and I would belch up bits of undigested food. Finally my kidneys became affected and I did not get the proper rest because I had to rise several times every night. All during the day I would have awful pains across the small of my back that made it impossible for me to bend over. Besides this trouble I also had poor blood circulation.

"Finally a friend advised me to get Konjola and when I started taking this medicine it went right to the source of my troubles. Konjola regulated all the stomach organs and drove the poisons from my system. Now I can eat anything without the recurrence of my former troubles. Now my kidneys are in perfect condition and I never suffer because of them. The circulation of my blood is normal and I am feeling better in every way—all due to the powers of Konjola."

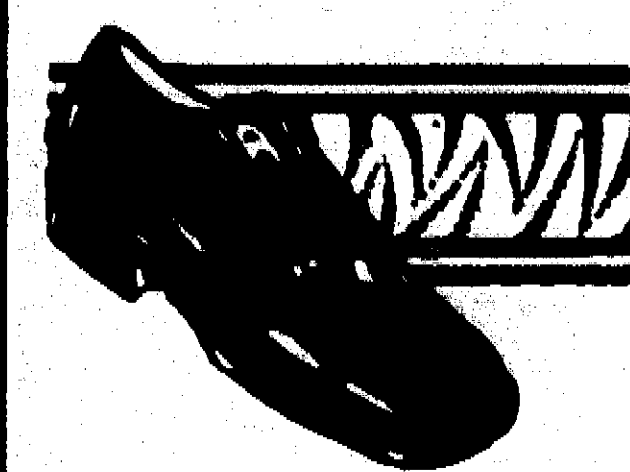

Konjola is different than any other known remedy in this section. It contains twenty-two juices extracted from natural plants which invigorate the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels to a more healthy action. The effect of Konjola on the entire system brings amazing relief in cases of suffering that had been going on for years. At the same time many weak and rundown systems have been restored to a new state of health through this compound. Such a vast number of men and women in this city have told of their experience with this new medical product that now Konjola is the most highly esteemed medicine that is known in this section. Konjola is strongly recommended here in Marion at Young & Sons Pharmacy, and is also being sold by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this section.—Ada.

WILL REAFFILIATE WITH FEDERATION

Brotherhood To Discuss Further Its Decision Made at Convention

Columbus, May 18.—Delegates to the fifth tri-annual convention of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, Freight Handlers, Express and Station Employees were today contemplating further discussion of the action of the convention late yesterday in voting to reaffiliate themselves with the American Federation of Labor.

This organization was suspended from the federation in 1925 for opposing ing a decision of the executive council in siding with the teamsters, drivers and chauffeurs of the American Highway Express Co., in declaring that they were members of the railway brotherhood and refused to turn them over to the teamsters union.

Decision to again join the American Federation followed the reading of a letter from William Green, president of the organization, in which the brotherhood was invited to reaffiliate without any reservation whatsoever.

It was pointed out that in again affiliating themselves to the federation they do not in any way comply with the old executive order. Further conferences between the federation officials and the brotherhood to settle the question are planned to be held.

Congressman George Huddleston, Democrat of Alabama, spoke at the meeting yesterday. Excerpts from his speech are:

"Union labor must present a united front for its own protection."

"Organized labor is guided by the general welfare in every section and its acts affect and aid all labor whether organized or not."

RAILROAD SITUATION
FURTHER BECLOUDED

I. C. C. Refuses N. Y. C., B. & O., and Nickel Plate Men on Wheeling Board

Washington, May 18.—The action of the Interstate Commerce Commission in refusing to permit certain officials of the New York Central, Baltimore & Ohio and Nickel Plate systems to hold interlocking directorships on the Wheeling & Lake Erie board, has further befuddled the railroad situation.

In the opinion of a number of railroad executives:

These three roads each acquired 33,333 shares of prior lien, 4,034 shares of preferred and 50,000 shares of common stock of the Wheeling & Lake Erie early last year, the prior lien stock being purchased from John D. Rockefeller, Jr. They promptly applied for permission to have representation on the Wheeling board. Objection was raised by the Pittsburgh & West Virginia and Wabash Roads on the ground that the purchase of the Wheeling stock by the three roads would give them jointly the control of the Wheeling and result in a discontinuance of the cooperation of the Wheeling as part of the through route with the Pittsburgh & West Virginia and Wabash.

In denying the application the commission pointed out that the acquisition of Wheeling stock by the three trunk lines was an important step in carrying out a plan for the consolidation of all the roads in eastern trunk lines into four great systems.

PROSPECT CHURCH GROUP

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Stiffler and family and Mr. Dana Mulvaine and Miss Helen Schuch of Richwood.

INJURED KENTON FOLKS RECOVERING

Kenneth Snyder Sustains Injuries When Coal Rolls on Him; Farmer Falls

Kenton, May 18—Thrown to the ground while attempting to ride a horse, Kenneth Snyder, 12, of Kenton, sustained body injuries and a broken ankle.

The young man together with his brothers, Alice and Juanita, were riding the animal from pasture when the accident happened. The calf, taking a break from the two boys, broke loose from the two boys and started running.

This is the second mishap in the family in less than a week. Mrs. Snyder, who was riding a horse, fell when she was thrown from the horse.

Kenneth Snyder, employed at the Kenton Coal Company, is recovering from injuries received to his back and legs when several chunks of coal rolled onto him. The young man had gone to the fuel supply room of the company and fell over a chunk of coal.

Passing a large pile that struck him, falling from a hayrack of the horse, the young man, J. C. Peoples of Hope, south of here, suffered a badly bruised back, shoulder and nose. He was floating after climbing into the car.

Wayne Bruce, south of here, is recovering from injuries received to his back and legs when several chunks of coal rolled onto him. The young man had gone to the fuel supply room of the company and fell over a chunk of coal.

APPEALS FOR AID

Barry Asks Clevelanders To Tell What They Know of Bribery

Cleveland, May 18—Safety Director Edwin D. Barry has appealed to Cleveland citizens who have heard or know of "graft" to tell the Cuyahoga County Grand Jury about it while that body is probing charges of money being paid for a police promotion.

"If any person in this community has been approached by anyone claiming to be able to buy police or fire promotions, or has paid any money, or knows anyone else who has been approached or paid money, I appeal to them to tell the grand jury at once. It is a public duty."

Barry's appeal followed the appearance of former Mayor C. C. Townsend of Cleveland, before the grand jury, where he said he named Police Capt. John E. Savage as the police officer who told him of $500 paid for promotion.

Captain Savage, who also appeared before the grand jury yesterday, emphatically denied he had any conversation with Townsend about bribes for promotions.

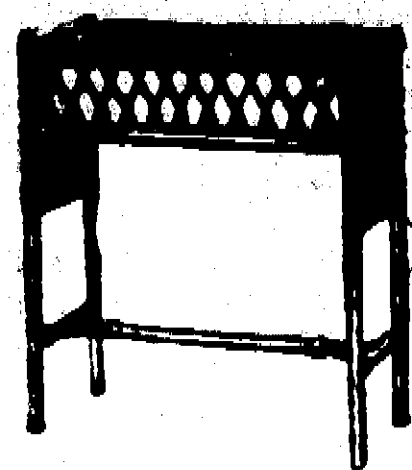

LIFE SENTENCE FOR SLAYER OF OFFICIAL

Portsmouth, May 18 — Edgar Burton, 20, was to begin serving a sentence of life imprisonment today following a verdict of guilty, with a recommendation for mercy, returned here yesterday by the jury before whom Burton had been on trial charged with murder, first degree, in connection with the slaying of Deputy Sheriff Henry Bending, 31, on Easter Sunday last. Sentence was pronounced by Judge Kimble immediately after the jury had returned its finding.

Reigh Count Continues To Lead Field As Derby Favorite

18 Horses Will Lineup Saturday For Great Race

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

Louisville, Ky., May 13—Having spent the last 24 hours disguised as a horse in the feed box, I am forced to the conclusion today that there is only one factor operating against Reigh Count's chances of winning the Kentucky Derby tomorrow afternoon.

He doesn't read the newspapers. Therefore, can't know that all the talk is agreed that there is something in the field that can be counted on to beat him. He can not turn to the farm sheets and be apprised of the shifting tides that he has all the heart and the foot of his field, and simply must do an imperial ballet to stay on top of the entire mile and a half of the race.

He can't even surmise that the chicken which he has been doing as a "work" has been nailed as a factor in the impending success.

Win Either Way
From what I have been able to learn, the great race has two distinct possibilities—if the track remains good, Reigh Count can't lose; if it doesn't by tomorrow afternoon, the rest of the field hasn't a chance.

The Count, in brief, is one of those proven calamities known as a "pro" favorite. He apparently is to race the post with a vast majority of the thousands of dollars in Kentucky betting on his withers, and it's just too bad that a thing like that has to be kept secret from the only party involved who can do anything about it.

As it is, Reigh Count will line up at the barrier with some 18 odd horses, among the slightest suspicion that he is a great horse and the others are "pro" favorites. He conceivably might even get lost and feel no sense of social position. He has learned by experience that the odds are just as good at the end of a losing as they are the day he wins.

It is from ignorance such as this that the 1 to 2 shot comes centering suddenly back to the judges' stand and finding shortly before the start of the race.

Need Wise Horse
Therefore, and in all gravity, I demand that the crying need of a "pro" favorite, excepting jockeys without firearms, is a horse that can be made to know that he is racing for the honor of John Bananas and his two little boys.

However, the good word here is that Reigh Count can remain dumb as a stone, a information bureau and still beat the odds. He is to face, for most of the day, odds either were discarded in the Preakness or were beaten off by the Count in the Mammoth Cave race on Monday last.

There is one notable and two minor exceptions to this statement. The former is Edward B. McLean's Toro, who would have won the Preakness if he hadn't been given a ride like a man on a rail. Toro came all the way from twelfth to second, finally winning a near dead heat with Vicman, the winner.

A Few Exceptions
The minor exceptions are Strolling Player, the $61,000 importation, and Sun Beau, both of which ran for only a few days in the closing days of the race. Strolling Player seems to lack track smartness which something that can and must be used in a big derby field. Sun Beau did not run from thirteenth to fifth.

However, if we are going into details with these also runs, we might as well record the fact that Typhoon was hustling somewhat in the stretch, having advanced from fifteenth to seventh in the process.

Cleveland, May 13—Reinsmen who make an early invasion of Ohio to prepare for the Grand Circuit inaugural at Toledo, June 25-30, will have an opportunity to race their horses into condition. Urbana, Newark, Sandusky and Mansfield all will stage meetings before the bell rings on the big time. Their dates are Urbana, May 25-31; Newark, June 5-8; Sandusky, June 11-15; and Mansfield, June 18-22.

MANY NEW DRIVERS IN 500-MILE RACE

Johnny Seymour Will Take Place of Veteran Earl Cooper

Indianapolis, May 13—Although many veterans of the automobile speed sport continue to hold a generous share of the limelight in the speed sport, the field of young drivers preparing for the 500-mile race at Indianapolis, May 30, probably is greater this year than ever before and, in fact, some of the old-timers have relinquished their places at the wheel in favor of this new and daring generation of pilots.

Earl Cooper, veteran speedster who was in the forefront of racing ranks when one-and-two-cylinder cars still were chugging around dirt tracks, is the latest of the old-timers to give way to youth. The man who will take his place behind the steering wheel is Johnny Seymour, nominated to drive one of the Marmion Specials in this year's annual 500-mile race on the Indianapolis speedway.

When Marmion announced a month or so ago that it would again participate in racing after an absence of 17 years, Cooper was named commander-in-chief of Marmion's racing squadron and his original intention was to himself pilot one of the three special Marmion front-wheel drive racers in the Indianapolis classic. It was not until the cars had actually been put through their paces on the speedway that Cooper changed his mind and in so doing, strengthened the age-old assertion that "youth must be served."

Seymour, the man who will take Cooper's place, is not a new figure in race track atmosphere, yet he never was in the forefront of racing ranks. His experience was gained on the perilous

All Outdoors AND Where To Go

BY JAMES W. STUBER

Columbus, May 13—May is the parental month in which nature shows her greatest development. Ernest Thompson Seton, the famous author and naturalist, calls it "the planting or sowing moon." Most all of the primitive people called the month "moons." The birds are feeding their nestlings. Near every singing male you will find a nest, the female, somewhere. Baby rabbits appear along the roadside. Young squirrels may soon be seen as they venture from the den where they were born.

Tree Frogs
Away up North, in Canadian marshlands, wild ducks and geese are nesting. The migratory bird treaty between the United States and Canada has given them protection in their flight from their winter home in the south. Once these birds were slaughtered by millions during the mating and nesting season. It is only since 1913 that spring shooting has been made illegal.

Spring is the time to see nature, to love nature, and to give nature a chance to reproduce her kind. Later in the year, the taking of game or fish for the benefit and use of man is altogether proper, except, of course, the few species of fish that spawn in the fall, such as the trout.

Speaking of the moons or seasons in the interpretation of the American Indians, the quaint and fitting names are of interest:

March is the "awakening or crow moon"; April the "wild goose or green grass moon"; May the "planting or sowing moon"; June the "rose moon"; July the "thunder moon"; August the "green corn or red moon"; September the "harvest moon"; October the "falling leaf moon"; November the "mad moon"; December the "long night moon"; January the "snow or cold moon"; and February the "hunger moon."

The parental season will soon be over and vacation season will be here. You will be wanting to go fishing. Here's a tip on a few good places to go:

East Harbor, in Ottawa County, near Danville, is a splendid location for large mouth black bass, and blue gills. There is good small bass fishing not so far away at Put-in-Bay.

Chippewa Lake, in Medina County, is a good place for large mouth bass, speckled bass, crappie, perch, catfish and bluegills. One of Ohio's few natural lakes.

Chippewa Lake is reached by interurban from Cleveland or from Mansfield. There are also good roads through Mansfield or Medina to the lake.

Reading Circle Certificates Are Presented Mark Street Grade Pupils

Presentation of reading circle certificates by Miss Harriet Christie, principal, featured an assembly conducted by pupils of the fifth and sixth grades of the Mark Street School this morning at the school.

A "James Whitcomb Riley" program was presented, opening with the singing of "America the Beautiful," and reading, "The Life of Riley," by Donald Helwig. Leland Thorpe gave a recitation, "Treasures of a Wise Man," and Pauline Chambers a recitation, "Happily Ever After." Music furnished by the sixth grade was followed by recitations by four first grade pupils. A reading, "Out to Old Aunt Mary's," was given by the fifth grade, after which pupils of that grade also gave a musical program. Kellogg's
CORN FLAKES

★ Kellogg's were the first and original corn flakes! Their tender-flavor and crispness has never been equalled!

Serve for lunch or dinner as well as breakfast. Fine for the kiddies' evening meal. Never tough-thick—but extra crisp. Easy to digest.

Order at hotels, restaurants, cafeterias. On dining cars. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

MRS. MURIEL SIBMAN AND HORACE DODGE WED TODAY
 London, May 13—A romance which began in Detroit, Mich., united two rich American families when Mrs. Muriel Sibman was married at the Baywater Presbyterian Church to Horace Dodge, son of one of the founders of Dodge Brothers, Detroit automobile manufacturers. The ceremony took place Thursday, in the presence of about 200 friends and relatives.
 Mrs. Dodge, a beautiful girl of 24, is the daughter of Andrew Sibman, Esq., a millionaire Detroit contractor.
 Dodge gave his age as 27 when he filed notice at a registry office a few weeks ago that he intended to marry Miss Sibman. He is a speed boat manufacturer and is the heir to a $37,000,000 fortune. He is the son of the late Horace E. Dodge.

Republicans leaders are less interested in the extreme than some minds" already decide that Smith is

THREAT NOTE FROM
SANDINO REVEALED

Death to All North Americans in Nicaragua Is Promised

...and from Calvin Coolidge who is responsible for the horrible and disastrous situation that prevails in Nicaragua today.
"If you are an honorable man you will be able to understand that the above mentioned is an accomplished fact. The pretext that Coolidge brings forward for his intervention in Nicaragua is that of protecting lives and interests of the North Americans and other foreigners residing in this country, which is a tremendous hypocrisy."
"We Nicaraguans are respectable men and never in our history have occurred such happenings as are taking place at this time. They are the fruit of the politics of your countrymen in our country."
"The most honorable resolution that your country could adopt in this conflict with Nicaragua is to recall your armed forces from our territory thus permitting us to elect our own national government. This will be the only method of pacification in our country. It depends upon government to conserve the good or bad friendship between our own government and you."

The letter was signed "Sandino" and bore the Sandinista stamp and seal at the top of which is the picture of a man with a drawn sword.

EXECUTIONER'S HOME
DESTROYED BY BOMBS

Robert Elliott, Who Pulled
Switch on Sacco, Vanzetti,
Miraculously Escapes

...for many months after the execution he and his family were closely guarded by the police.
Elliott told the police after the bombing today that he was certain the bombs were placed in his home by fanatical sympathizers of the two Italian rebel, who were found guilty of murder after one of the longest and most widely discussed trials on record.

Although they have issued no official statement, it is believed the police are inclined to agree with Elliott that the bombing was planned as a reprisal.
The authorities are certain that the information known to have violent responses are being watched closely by the police. Numerous detectives, members of the bomb squad and a company of fire-fighters arrived at the scene shortly after the bombing.

Elliott was the executioner at the electrocution in Sing Sing Prison of Henry Judd Gray and Ruth Snyder, convicted of the murder of the woman's husband, Albert Snyder.

Getting Arrested.

George W. Martin, a New York lawyer, writes interestingly in the Forum for June regarding the predicament in which the ordinary citizen—innocent or guilty—finds himself when placed under arrest. Assuming that his statement of facts is correct, and we have no reason for questioning any of them and know that many of them are well founded, he offers an awful indictment of the methods pursued by the police and prosecutors' departments of the larger cities and possibly in many cities of lesser size.

"Let us consider the position of one accused of a serious crime—particularly if the crime is notorious, or represented by the tabloid newspapers as having a dash of sex in it," Mr. Martin says in part. "If you are a widow, like Mrs. Hall, you may expect to be arrested by state troopers at midnight—although the crime is two years old—and locked in a cell, or taken forcibly to the scene and compelled to participate in a rehearsal of the event. But if you are a mere man, your position is far more perilous. If the police are ordinary police, you will be interrogated, howled at, and threatened by relays of detectives for thirty-six hours continuously without food, sleep, or access to a toilet. If you do not sign the confession which has been drawn up in writing, you will then be beaten with a hose or a black-jack. Under this treatment, a perfectly innocent school teacher in Chicago confessed to the murder of which Messrs. Leopold and Loeb were afterward convicted. If you have the ill luck to be a Chinaman—as in a recent case reviewed by the supreme court of the United States—the torture may be expected to continue for seven days and nights. If you are well-advised, you sign any confession offered at once, and put your trust in a jury.

"In any case, you are then thrown in jail to rot while the district attorney gives interviews to the press and secures the countryside for evidence and witnesses, the police rehearse their parts, and your wounds get less conspicuous; for it would never do to let you come into the courtroom in your present state. Meanwhile your confession is published, and every one except your lawyers is perfectly sure you are guilty."

It's an awful thought that human beings are treated, as Attorney Martin here holds out, in the name of law and justice, and yet many cases of such treatment of persons placed under arrest, and persons subsequently proved innocent, have been established. There is probably not a great city, great as a population center, in the land whose record has not been blackened by such proceedings as set out in this Forum article.

For the last year or two we have been seeing much in type, and not without good cause, of the protection afforded by police and court officials to the guilty. It is time that we are seeing more in type, as well, about the protection of the innocent from police and court officials. And even the guilty, as this Forum writer intimates, should not be made to undergo the brutalities to which they often are compelled to submit. Not only our criminal laws, but the methods pursued by the police and prosecutors of our great population centers as well are in need of correction.

Not the Slightest Chance To Lose.

Mayor Hazen has set Monday, May 21, as the opening day of "Clean-Up" week. Up to last year, it was the practice to refer to it as "Spring Clean-Up" week, but such reference would hardly have been appropriate last year, when the coming of warm weather was about as long delayed as it has been this, in which spring will be two-thirds gone on the opening day of the week, with summer and the longest day of the year but an even month away.

The cleaning-up of properties and streets and alleys generally having been so long delayed, there will necessarily be a greater accumulation of rubbish and other unsightly objects and more effort may be required to put the city into such shape as to appear to the best advantage, but no matter what the effort necessary, the result of a thorough clean-up will be well worthy of any and all efforts it may entail.

In addressing a joint meeting of the American Federation of Art and the American Association of Museums in Washington, Wednesday, President Coolidge, to use the language of a Washington despatch, drew an analogy from the homily about clothes making the man, and said:

"If clothes make the man—and certainly good dress gives one a sense of self-respect and poise—how much more is it true that clean, beautiful surroundings lend a moral tone to a community. Gradually we are getting rid of the squalor of the slums of our big cities and of the oppressive ugliness of the small towns." If we could but surround ourselves with the forms of beauty, the president held, the evil things of life would tend to disappear. "Through our contact with the beautiful," he continued, "we see more of the truth and are brought into closer harmony with the infinite."

This newspaper has long been an advocate of city cleanliness and beautification. We believe that the beautification contests conducted by the Star, some years ago, did as much to make this city the beautiful place it is in the summer season as any agency which has ever been employed to that end. It is good at this time to have an authority so distinguished as the president commend as of moral and spiritual value a cause which we have so long championed, but far more pleasing to us is the spirit shown by the people of our city, year after year, in making their residence properties so slightly as they have. We believe that very generally there is local appreciation that cleanliness and beautification pays. All of us may not have been able in our minds to frame our conclusions so aptly as has the president in his utterances, but we believe the conviction is just as strong with us nevertheless. And we believe that it will live on and develop and that the effect of it will be more and more apparent, year by year.

And there is another phase to the proposition. By surrounding ourselves with cleanliness and the beautiful, we not only benefit ourselves morally and spiritually and in health, but benefit ourselves financially as well. Not only do we better ourselves, but we actually get paid for bettering our condition, for every dollar a property-owner gives to the making clean and beautification of his property adds ten to its value. It's a proposition in which there is no chance to lose and every chance to win.

Patches in the Throat.

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.

There is a special form of sore throat, accompanied by great pain or "angina." It is due to a special and peculiar germ and is called Vincent's Angina.

Ulcers and patches of membrane appear in the mouth and throat. The patches look a good deal like the membrane of diphtheria. On this account it is not always recognized and sometimes is confused with diphtheria.

It may be associated with abscessed teeth, diseased gums and all other forms of bad teeth. I wish everybody would come to realize what a menace to health a diseased mouth really is. The broken and ulcerated tissues are swimming in pus germs. Such surfaces are ready to become infected with some more dangerous germ than the ever-present one. Debilitated persons and those who neglect cleanliness are particularly liable to attack by the germs of Vincent's Angina.

There is such close relationship existing between tonsillitis, diphtheria and Vincent's Angina that certainly as to the true nature of the trouble is determined only in the laboratory. As a matter of safety all throat membranes and unusual discharges should be submitted to the microscope.

Many persons who have real diphtheria lack positive and painful symptoms. They hardly feel ill and may proceed with their regular duties. They know there are patches in the throat, but they disregard them.

This should never happen. Every time a membrane forms, whether the throat is extremely painful or just a little, there should be a laboratory examination.

There are really two forms of Vincent's Angina. One is a superficial type, in which there is simply ulceration. In the other the deeper tissues are involved.

To overcome Vincent's Angina immediate attention must be given the general condition. The teeth and gums should be attended to by the dentist. As in other forms of sore throat, cleanliness is of vital importance. The mouth, tonsils and throat must be kept clear of the membrane. Some cleansing spray, wash or gargle may be used. Alcohol and tobacco should be avoided during the progress of the disease.

The family physician will prescribe the remedies and take charge of the case. It is important to call the doctor in any case of throat trouble when there are patches, because, as I have said, there is always the danger of diphtheria. It does not pay to take chances.

ANSWERS TO HEALTH QUERIES

A. J. Q.—What will help to reduce? I have been trying to reduce for three weeks and seem to be very flabby. Does that show results in any way? Are oranges reducing? I am thirty years of age, five feet four inches tall. What should I weight?

A.—A restricted diet and regular systematic exercise should bring about results. After the flesh has become flabby exercise will be helpful in taking off the surplus weight and toning up the muscles and tissues. Yes, if not taken in excess. You should weigh about 132 pounds. For further particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

S. S. Q.—While swimming I got water in my ears. Is this bad? Can it be stopped? 2.—How can I get rid of pimples?

A.—Every one gets water in their ears when swimming. Try wearing a bathing cap. 2.—Correct the diet by cutting down on sugar, starches and coffee. Eat simple food. Constipation is usually a factor and should be corrected. For full particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

X. Z. Q.—What should a man weigh who is thirty-two years old and five feet eight inches tall? 2.—How can I gain weight and build up my entire system?

A.—For his age and height he should weigh about 155 pounds. 2.—Proper dieting and deep breathing is the secret. You should eat nourishing foods and have plenty of sleep and rest. For full particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.—Copyright, 1928, Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

The Way of the World.

BY GROVE PATTERSON.

One hears much critical talk about "foreigners." We have little right to make distinctions. This whole country is so now composed with some other great nation or the earth that we are all foreigners—all but the red Indians. To be sure, some men and women have been over here but six months. The oldest families have been here two or three hundred years.

And in the long run of time and the long processes of nature there is little difference between six months and a hundred years. It is a poor "knock" to say your fellow-citizen is a foreigner.

New York, which leads in so many ways, might be expected to lead in the number of divorces. One might think that New York would shine in that respect. Fact is the divorce rate is highest in the southwestern states including Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas. The lowest divorce rate is recorded in the Middle Atlantic states which includes New York.

Not so easy to tell which way the folks of this world—and especially of these United States—are going. When the country was new, farmers raised their barns by the kind help of their neighbors and a barrel of rum. In those pioneer days the preacher, after his first sermon and his first calls on the folks of the parish, sometimes had to be helped home because he had accepted a bit too much of his good neighbor's hospitality.

Dr. McCurdy, director of physical education at the International Y. M. C. A. college, reports from a diary written by a student in an eastern college between 1876 and 1880. It speaks of excessive drunkenness on the part of students as a common occurrence.

We are sometimes shocked by things simply because they are new. A thing that at first sight seems shocking may, upon analysis and reflection, be found merely new and not bad. Some of the customs of young people today are described as shocking. Examination shows the customs somewhat different from the customs of their parents and grandparents, but not always worse. Weaknesses of one sort or another are characteristic of each passing generation. Some are a little more pronounced in one direction and some in another. We must make our estimates from the totality of character. Everything considered it seems likely that the character of the present generation is fully up to the character of the past. We must, of course, take into consideration the fact there are notable exceptions in many families.

What Is Gravitation?

BY GARRETT P. SERVING.

"As I understand, it was Newton's theory that the force of gravitation exerted by the stars and planets upon one another keeps them in their proper courses; and that the law of gravitation was not known of previous to his day. If so, how did astronomers before him explain the movements of the heavenly bodies, and what did they think kept those bodies in their proper places.—Isaac Hainer, Chicago."

They made some good guesses, but some childish explanations. Aristotle said there was a natural tendency of all bodies toward the center of the universe, and, since observation showed that everything on the earth tended to fall toward the center of the earth, that proved that the earth must itself be the center of the universe. This was putting the cart before the horse, or using the cart to prove the fallacy of the very big and creditable fact stands out that Aristotle, twenty-three centuries ago, believed and taught—to an unbelieving generation—that the earth was a globe.

His "natural tendency" was simply another word for our "gravitation." As far as the essential nature of this tendency is concerned, we know no more than he did. In fact, his word for it fits Einstein's conception of the cause of the fall of bodies and the circulation of satellites around planets. And of worlds around suns better than the word gravitation, because there is associated with it no conception of a compelling force. Einstein says these things happen because of the inherent structure of the universe, and that seems to have been Aristotle's idea, though he had no supermathematics in which to spin it out, like a mental gossamer.

The Greeks, also, invented the idea of the "crystalline sphere" to explain the motions of the heavenly bodies, all apparently going the same way around the earth. These spheres were supposed to surround one another like the layers of an onion, and in each was embedded a planet, which was carried around with its revolving, invisible sphere.

But they were puzzled by the fact that the planets have irregular motions sometimes forward, sometimes backward, though upon the whole they all finally travel in one direction. To explain this, Hipparchus and Ptolemy invented the idea of "epicycles," i. e., of little spheres or circles, each carrying a planet, now backward, now forward, while the whole lot of them was borne along by the prima mobile, or sphere of the fixed stars lying beyond. The epicycle theory was developed in complicated forms, without any explanation forthcoming for the motive power behind it.

In the sixteenth century Copernicus disestablished the earth as the center of the planetary system, and showed that that place belonged to the sun. But long before his time some thoughtful men had had the same idea, though it did not prevail until after Copernicus.

Meanwhile, William Gilbert, famous for his discoveries about magnetism, put forth the idea that the planets were held and moved by a force resembling magnetic attraction. John Kepler later imagined magnetic rays, extending out from the sun like wheel spokes, and pulling the planets round in a direction in which the sun itself rotated.

Kepler showed that the planets travel in ellipses and not in circles, and though he adopted Gilbert's idea as to the nature of the attraction, he thought that something like a "animal force" must enable the planets to avoid being put down into the sun. Next he decorated his theory with his theory of vortices, in which it was assumed that space was filled with some kind of fluid in which eddies, or whirls formed, carrying the heavenly bodies around. But again the ultimate cause remained unexplained.

Finally Newton made a mathematical analysis of the planetary movements and showed why they travel in ellipses, and also developed mathematically the "law" according to which gravitation acts. The law enables us to predict the motions of bodies under gravitation, but as to the force called gravitation the theory merely assumes its existence from its evident effects, without trying to explain its ultimate nature. As far as that is concerned we are where Aristotle was.—Copyright, 1928, International Feature Service, Inc.

New York Day by Day.

BY O. O. MINTYRE.

New York, May 18.—Thoughts while strolling: The British-looking sunbathers around the Biltmore. Maurice Campbell, the prohibition director. And husband of Henrietta Crossman. The assembled young clerks in florist shops. And women in the stately of masculine attire.

The plump woman doctor who drives in a pony-drawn dog cart. Those curtained drug stores without window displays, known to chemist shops. Tired pedestrians gravitating naturally to church steps for a rest. Moccased cabbies who cry, "Kerridge!" so hopefully.

Park avenue's close-cropped world. Bristling with wealth and opulence. But nothing gives a street romance and color like a few hungry artists and threadbare poets. Riches still Park avenue, whereas a little poverty would mellow it. Harrison Fisher, the magazine cover artist.

Bruce Barton, a modern writer, actually born in a log cabin. A tea-room features Dennis King sandwiches. He's the latest matinee heart throbber. Rustless imperious young crowds who seem to have been everywhere and seen everything. And so drink straight gin from the bottle.

Interior decorating schools. What a business that turned out to be. But I'd rather be a tap dancer. And do those trick falls like Willy Mahoney. Steel workers that resemble specks in the sky. Never see a luncheon pail in New York any more. H. C. Witwer.

Those blades who pull hats further down over their ears than ever. Fishlike figures sealed in the hermetic glass of limousines. Lyman Hyne, the American bobbed champion at St. Moritz. And Hulbert Footner, the novelist.

Girls who go stockinged give me a pat. That sounds like an old name. Nelson Doubleday, the tall young publisher, public crowds filling buses to Coney Island. A newsboy asking for a good-natured cop. Restaurant waiters who stand in doorways before the evening rush.

Sign in a window display of bathrugs: "We stand behind our products." You do, do you? Well, that's peeping and are you in need of a bright boy.

A stage doorkeeper tells me that stars are rarely bothered by love-sick admirers. Rumors do not moon around the public. They express their feelings chiefly through machine notes. The real eighteen-karat pests of the stage doors are the autograph hunters. They are thick in New York and are constantly sending in their autograph albums with letters asking for such intimate sentiments as "To my dear friend, Soandso," along with the autograph.

And I am told the signatures most desired by autograph hunters are those of Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney.

A young New York jeweler once took his guest book to the home of Ralph Barton in the hope Charlie Chaplin, who was a guest for the evening, would sign it. Mr. Chaplin did, and underneath his signature wrote, "Al Ralph's apartment."

I have a plush-backed autograph book which was a treasured possession during formative years. Among the autographs are those of "Diamond Jack," proprietor of Pleasant Avenue Hotel; carnival artist, Alaine Demarais; Kitty Rhodes; Repertoire company; Boone, the hypnotist; Walker Holmes, advance agent, Price's Floating opera; Otk Morrow, district Ohio agent of the New York Optical company; and Dr. Samuel Leopold, sole agent for Dr. Leopold's Magic Eye Salve. Each had a gleam in those idyllic days.

One of the first things impressing the foreigner is that New York taxi-drivers are nearly always young men. Abroad they are old and kindly. Here they are young and unkind. Copyright, 1928, by the McNaught Syndicate, Inc.

Xaver Scharwenka—Composer.

BY COZETTE DOUGLASS.

Another of the highly gifted Polish composers, Xaver Scharwenka, was born at Samter on January 6, 1850.

He was a pupil of Kullak and Wuerst at Kullak's academy, graduating from there in 1868.

Scharwenka is perhaps best known as a pianist, although his compositions have become very popular. His first concert was given in 1868 at the Singakademie and proved so successful that for the following ten years he gave an annual series of three chamber-concerts there and also arranged and conducted orchestral subscription concerts.

In 1874 he gave a series of tours through Europe and America and in 1880 he founded the Berlin Scharwenka conservatory, of which he was director until 1891. In that year he came to the United States and founded a conservatory in New York City.

The year 1898 found him again in Berlin where he accepted the directorate of the Kindt worth-Scharwenka conservatory and was successful in that position for three years. This headmaster of the pianoforte class. The latter post he retained until 1914, when he resigned to establish his own Meisterklasse for the piano in Berlin.

Scharwenka's compositions are strongly marked by the characteristics of the new German school, and especially by the Wagnerian methods. However, they possess an inherent individuality which indicates a really poet nature, a spontaneous melody and an intense charm of expression.

All his work carries the national characteristics, a feature which marks all

10. Inmate Marion Star, Criminal Problem for Police

Headlines in south and west Marion have been filing complaints against a youthful delinquent who has been conducting raids on supplies of food and clothes and sometimes on automobiles, when permitted to leave the prison in homes in those sections of the city.

Police say they know the boy but are faced with the problem of knowing what to do with him. He is about 10 years of age and is mentally deficient.

An application to place him in the home for feeble minded, at Columbus, has been filed, but because of the crowded condition of the institution, it has been impossible to get him in. In meantime he is permitted to run at large.

Police say the boy is harmless, the greatest danger being to himself, as some time, in his prowling, he might be mistaken for a burglar and shot.

GENERAL ELECTRIC
Refrigerator

The hermetically sealed steel casing, indicated by the arrows, houses all the machinery of the General Electric Refrigerator. It also contains all the oil this machinery, and the tiny motor which operates it, will ever need to protect them from wear.

The engineers and scientists in the General Electric laboratories worked for fifteen years perfecting this design—worked to develop a refrigerator that would be thoroughly efficient and virtually trouble-proof.

By the very nature of the design, the maintenance responsibility for satisfactory performance rests with the manufacturer. Every part of the machinery is built, tested and covered in the General Electric factory.

The assembled mechanism is sealed in this electrically welded casing. It is then put through a final test. You never see the machinery—we never see it. No one is responsible for it except General Electric and they guarantee its absolute efficiency.

When the refrigerator is delivered, all you need do is plug the cord into any electric outlet—just as you do your fan or iron. Automatically, quietly, economically, this mechanism which you never see and which you need never think about, gives you perfect refrigeration.

Come in today and see the various models. Easy payments can be arranged, if you prefer.
